If You Disagree With The Decision

If you disagree with the decision, you have the right to appeal. A person who hasn't seen your case will look at it. That person will be an Administrative Law Judge. In the rest of our letter we'll call this person an ALJ. The ALJ will correct mistakes and look at any new facts you have before deciding your case. We call this a hearing.

- You have 60 days to ask for a hearing.
- The 60 days start the day after you get this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not get it within the 5-day period.

Dear Mr. James:

I received your letter of June 12, 2001. As an Assistant County Solicitor, I feel that there is a conflict of interest that would arise in any effort to help you with the matter described in your letter of June 12, 2001.

The York Bar Association maintains a lawyer referral service that you might contact should you have trouble finding someone to help you with your legal questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. James:

In response to your letter dated May 14, I wish we could be of more assistance. Our office receives approximately 500 letters per month. With our staff of three people, we must focus on our specific task, which is to monitor the conditions of confinement in thirty-four county jails, eleven state prisons, and four federal penitentiaries.

West Group publishes Police Misconduct: Law and Litigation, by Michael Avery, David Rudovsky, and Karen M. Blum. It is more of a subscription than a book. It is supplemented with updates each quarter. If your law library does not carry it, I believe you will have a difficult time acquiring it, as it is quite expensive.

I again apologize that we cannot be of further assistance. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Angela Trop

Dear Mr. James:

This will respond to a recent letter received in this office on October 15, 2001. Because of an overwhelming caseload, Mr. Love is not accepting any new matters at the present time. I would suggest that you contact the local bar association in York and request that they refer you to an attorney who is experienced in this area of the law. I wish you good luck.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. James:

I have received your letter dated April 23, 2001.

In your letter, you aver certain events surrounding your arrest by members of the York County Drug Task Force subsequent harassment of your wife.

In reading your letter, the events you allege do not fall within the jurisdiction of this Commission. The State Ethics Commission is limited by statute as to how it may proceed and as to what it may investigate.

The scope of investigatory review is basically limited to public officials/employees using public office for personal financial gain for themselves, immediate family members or businesses with which they are associated.

The facts you have submitted do not fall within the ambit of Commission review, that is, the submitted facts do not fit within the purview of the Ethics Act which is the one and only law that we may consider.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. James:

MidPenn Legal Services is in receipt of your recent letter in which you request legal assistance. We know that you need legal help. We can, unfortunately, no longer provide this help to you due to an Act of Congress.

This law, HR 3019, the Omnibus Continuing Resolution, prohibits us from assisting you. This Act of Congress applies to all funding received by MidPenn Legal Services and covers all inmates whether they are in a Federal, State or local prison.

Effective April 26, 1996, MidPenn Legal Services, as a recipient of federal funding through the Legal Services Corporation, is prohibited from providing legal assistance to people incarcerated in federal, state or local prisons. This also includes local jails. The prohibition means that MidPenn Legal Services is not allowed to represent prisoners in litigation, provide legal assistance in any form to prisoners who wish to litigate, or give prisoners advice on matters that clearly and obviously lead to litigation.

The prohibition on assisting prisoners applies to all areas of the law, whether or not the legal help requested has any connection to your confinement, e.g., conditions of confinement, internal grievances, divorce, custody, consumer, social security or any other civil or criminal matter.

These are the mandates of this new Federal law as we currently understand them. Because MidPenn is unable to represent inmates to the extent that we had been able to in the past, this work has been taken over and funding transferred to the Institutional Law Project of Pennsylvania. The Director of that project is Angus Love and his address is:

The Lewisburg Prison Project is an entity that provides legal assistance to prisoners incarcerated in central PA, including prisoners in your institution.

Please note that due to continually decreasing resources, MidPenn Legal Services is able to provide you with the information contained in this letter only once. Should you write our office for legal assistance in the future, your letter may simply be returned to you.

We deeply regret our inability to assist you in important legal matters at this time and wish you every success for finding the help that you need.

Sincerely,
